JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE.

Tuesday, October 18, 2005.

Met according to adjournment, at eleven o'clock A.M., with Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow in the Chair (having been appointed by the Speaker, under authority conferred by Rule 5, to perform the duties of the Chair).

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Robert F. Quinn, C.S.P., Chaplain of the House, as follows:

Gracious God. Your always available assistance enables us to recognize our personal and legislative responsibilities and to implement our many daily opportunities for serving others in a thoughtful manner. Your ways and spiritual values help us to open our minds and hearts to the many current needs of people in our communities, from the youngest child to the most senior adult. Teach us to be fully aware of the presence and the needs of our neighbors who depend upon others for their daily existence. In these complex and uneasy times, achieving our goals and priorities is often not an easy task. Grant us the wisdom, patience and good sense to work with others in making our communities safe, peaceful, prosperous, civil and welcoming to all.

Grant Your blessings to the Speaker, the members and employees of this House and and families. Amen.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Petrolati), the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

The House Bill making appropriations for the fiscal year 2006 to Supplemental provide for supplementing certain existing appropriations and for appropriations. certain other activities and projects (House, No. 4440) was read a second time.

Pending the question on ordering the bill to a third reading, our um. Mr. Jones of North Reading asked for a count of the House to ascertain if a quorum was present. The Chair (Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow), having determined that a quorum was not in attendance, then directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to secure the presence of a quorum.

Subsequently a roll call was taken for the purpose of ascertaining Quorum, the presence of a quorum; and on the roll call 152 members were yea and nay No. 237. recorded as being in attendance.

[See Yea and Nay No. 237 in Supplement.]

Therefore a quorum was present.

After remarks on the question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members of the House moved that the bill be amended by inserting after section 16 (as printed) the following 2 sections:

"SECTION 15A. Paragraph (a) of Part B of section 3 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as so appearing in the 2004 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out subparagraph (13) and inserting in place thereof the following subparagraph:—

(13) An amount equal to the amount of the charitable contribution deduction allowed or allowable to the taxpayer under section 170 of the Code; provided, however, that, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2004, no such deduction shall be allowed in any taxable year unless the personal exemptions provided in clause (A) of subparagraph (1), of clause (A) of subparagraph (1A), and clause (A) of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) of Part B for such taxable year are the maximum allowable amounts set forth in said clauses; and provided further, that notwithstanding said section 170 of the Code, no deduction shall be allowed for contributions of household goods or used clothing, as those items are recognized under said section 170 of the Code. All requirements, conditions and limitations applicable to charitable contributions under the Code shall apply for purposes of determining the amount of the deduction under this subparagraph, except that taxpayers shall not be required to itemize their deductions in their federal income tax returns.

SECTION 15B. Section 4 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out subsection (b) in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:—

(b) Part B taxable income shall be taxed at the rate of 5.0 percent for the taxable year beginning on January 1, 2006.".

Pending the question on adoption of the amendment, Mr. Binienda of Worcester moved that it be amended by adding at the proposed new sections, in each instance, the following paragraph:

"Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, this section shall not take effect until such time as the department of revenue has furnished a study of their impact on the state's economy and the revenue cost to the commonwealth and its cities and towns, including, but not limited to, a distributional analysis showing the impact on taxpayers of varying income levels, the current practice of other states, any anticipated change in employment, and ancillary
